

The leading lectionary-based curriculum that helps bring the weekly readings
alive for all ages

Living the Good News is an ecumenical curriculum based on the Revised Common Lectionary, serving mainline denominations that use the RCL in worship. Now one printed edition serves all congregations and denomination-specific support resources are online.

Features

Leaders love it!

Sessions contain plenty of activities and teaching resources so even the most inexperienced leader will feel prepared for each class. Preparation is quick and easy, yet still includes rich content.

Congregational connections

Everyone hears and experiences the same Scripture stories in the liturgy, in Christian education classes, and at home. The entire congregation unites around the same Sunday readings.

Family connections

Weekly take-home papers (Nursery–Intermediate) bring the Sunday readings home, giving parents concrete suggestions for exploring session themes with their children.

Affordable

Reasonably priced and flexible, you can order the specific quantity you need at the age-level you need, without breaking your budget.

Just plain fun!

Fresh, innovative, and colorful sessions help children, teens, and adults discover their story in God's story. Sessions are as delightful to lead as they are to experience.

ONE VERSION SERVES ALL DENOMINATIONS!*

Resources include eight age levels, each published for three quarters of the church year: Fall, Winter, and Spring.

Nursery (Ages 2-3)

Designed for use with active, inquisitive 2- and 3-year-olds, these sessions offer engaging stories, songs, games, and crafts, but encourage lots of time for free play as well. A wonderful way to introduce very young children to Jesus!
